

Synthesis and Transformations of Ethyl 3-Formyl-1*H*-indole-2-carboxylate. Preparation of Aplysinopsin and β -Carboline Thiohydantoin Analogues*

Renata Jakše, David Bevk, Amalija Golobič, Jurij Svete, and Branko Stanovnik

Faculty of Chemistry and Chemical Technology, University of Ljubljana, Aškerčeva 5, P.O. Box 537, 1000 Ljubljana, Slovenia

Reprint requests to Prof. Dr. Branko Stanovnik. E-mail: Branko.Stanovnik@fkkt.uni-lj.si

Z. Naturforsch. 61b, 413 – 419 (2006); received January 6, 2006

Various aplysinopsin and β -carboline thiohydantoin analogues were prepared starting from ethyl 3-formyl-1*H*-indole-2-carboxylate by condensation with the active methylene group of 2-thiohydantoin, rhodanine, or thiobarbituric acid derivatives.

Key words: Aplysinopsin Analogues, β -Carbolines, Thiohydantoins