Two novel skeleton-rearranged norlignans, breviscaside A (1) and breviscapin B (2), have been isolated from the rhizomes of Curculigo brevicaula. Their structures were established on the basis of spectroscopic techniques, especially the 2D NMR spectral analysis.

Key words: Curculigo brevicaula, Hypoxidaceae, Norlignan Derivatives, Breviscaside A, Breviscapin B